

Can Real World Data Advance Equity of Health Care in Europe?

7 March 2017 | 11:00 to 12:30
European Parliament, room ASP A3E2

TIME	PROGRAMME	SPEAKERS
11:00 - 11:10	Welcome and opening remarks <hr/> The role of the European Parliament in advancing equity of health care within the EU	Cristian Buşoi, MEP
11:10 - 11:50	Time matters: the 'Brain Health' policy initiative driven by health care providers, health economists and patient advocates <hr/> The importance of early diagnosis and flexible choice of treatment A health economist perspective: Cost of Illness study Value of Treatment for Multiple Sclerosis	Moderator: Cristian Buşoi Gavin Giovannoni, Chair of Neurology, Barts and The London School of Medicine Gisela Kobelt, President, European Health Economics TBC
11:50 - 12:25	For the benefit of patients and society: could real world data become the co-driver of regulatory and reimbursement decisions? <hr/> The patient voice: European MS Platform (EMSP) The regulator: European Medicines Agency (EMA)	Moderator: Christian Elze Christoph Thalheim, External Affairs Director Xavier Kurz, Head of Surveillance & Epidemiology Service, Pharmacovigilance & Epidemiology Dpt.

TIME	PROGRAMME	SPEAKERS
------	-----------	----------

The health care provider: The European Committee for Treatment and Research in MS (ECTRIMS)

Eva Havrdova,
MS Centre,
Dpt. of Neurology,
Charles University,
Prague

European institutions: European Commission, DG Sanco

Andrzej Rys,
Director of Health
Systems and
Products, TBC

12:25 - 12:30

Closing

Cristian Buşoi